Dearest Hubby: —

I sure do wish you were home to-night. I came home late and tired — tried to rest but had to give it up as a bad job. What ever is the trouble with me I don't know but I sure do feel all broken up and worn out. Whether it is the work or the worry I don't know, but I feel a thousand times worse than before my vacation and goodness knows I felt pretty badly then. Perhaps I feel better to-morrow.

What I tried to tell you over the phone was, that I answered an ad for Mount Sinai Hosp. When I told them I had Hosp. Experience the Head Pharmacist was certainly eager for me to come down. The job was mine if I wanted it. The Salary as I told you was $90 per month meals + laundry. I don't think there was any room attached to the job - as he made no mention of it. The hours were from 8.30 till 8 - except 2 nights a week when I relieve the Hosp. Pharmacist until 7 P.M. These 2 nights I hope supper there. Every 3rd Sunday I am entirely off, the next on all day from 8.30 until 5 I think, and the 3rd. Sunday on for a few hours in the morning. The traveling is so much I would have to be up at least 1½ hour earlier in the morning and home much later, and if I feel as I do now — a little extra exertion would kill me. He is very anxious that I consider it and call him up which I promised to do. Tried to get him at 5 but his wife was busy.

Leaving my lunch hour I went over to see the Mr. Seelig I told you about and spoke to Mr. Kenney the head of the General Delivery Dept. He told me I could resign and request Civil Service to put me on the preferred list which would hold good for a year. However, the fact is I am no further than I was in the very beginning
